360° Approach

Unlike some other firms, that view Trade Secrets as an "IP issue" or as an "employment matter," we understand that to effectively manage and protect an organization's trade secrets, we need to pull all of the pieces together in a robust and comprehensive effort. We take a complete 360 degree approach. We understand the content that is a risk and we know how to protect it effectively --- through proper technology applications, procedures, training, communications, and, if necessary, litigation or other dispute resolution.
